- a. Ephraim Lu, Second Year Senator, Sixth College Housing Tours Info Session,
Requested: $47.00, Funded: $47.00 (2-0-0) Informal
Submitted by Sabrien Pabla on behalf of the Finance Committee

After discussion with the second year senator, finance thought it would be beneficial to the students if an information session was held rather than tours to the apartments. In the previous years, the housing tours were split between Revelle College Council and Sixth College Council; however, this year, Revelle has chosen to not partner with us, leading to a huge increase in the budget. Hence, the senator has decided to only host an informational event in Sixth.

- b. Thai Nguyen, on behalf of CIA, CIA Winter Bobaling, Requested: $857.00, Funded:
$857.00 (2-0-0) Informal
Submitted by Sabrien Pabla on behalf of the Finance Committee

A traditional event hosted by CIA that continues to draw a huge amount of the commuters in Sixth College.

- c. Thai Nguyen, on behalf of Commuter Senator, Poker-Run: Food Drive, Requested:
$170.00, Funded: $170.00 (2-0-0) Informal
Submitted by Sabrien Pabla on behalf of the Finance Committee

This event was previously a CIA event; however, the commuter senator has decided to make this a senator project. All proceeds of non-perishable items from this poker tournament will go straight to charity.

- d. Robert Nguyen, Sixth College Student Affairs Intern, Sixers Helping Sixers: Wellness Programs, Requested: $205.00, Funded $205.00 (2-0-0) Informal
Submitted by Sabrien Pabla on behalf of the Finance Committee

This is a traditional event that aims to entertain and educate Sixers. This year, it is a 2-day event with a nutrition lecturer and meditation instructor leading his or her own respective days. Healthy food will be provided.

- e. Bella Shander, on behalf of START, START Bracelets, Requested: $154.00, Funded: $154.00 (0-1-1) Informal
Submitted by Sabrien Pabla on behalf of the Finance Committee

After careful discussion, finance committee thought START bracelets were a great way to publicize the organization; however, the quantity of bracelets (500) was a little excessive. Hopefully, an appeal is made with clarification on the quantity.

- f. Polina Tsvetikova, on behalf of Coordinator of Student Activities, Senior Programming: Happy Hour and Stoles, Requested: $2,826.73, Funded: $1,826.73 (1-0-1) Informal
Submitted by Sabrien Pabla on behalf of the Finance Committee

This year the stoles are new and improved with more authentic and high- quality material. Sixth College Council would be subsidizing approximately $5 per student. The rest of the amount is going to Happy Hour at TGI Fridays, which is a time for graduating seniors to get together and celebrate their successes with appetizers.

- g. Appointment of Bella Shander to Finance Committee
Submitted by Sabrien Pabla
